Local citizens donate 102 units of blood

Appomattox citizens donated 102 units of blood at the Bloodmobile last Thursday, according to Bloodmobile spokesman Alice Martin.

A total of 106 persons registered, but four were deferred, she adds.

"I would like to thank all the donors and workers who helped with the Bloodmobile last week," Mrs. Martin said. She added that Brownie Troope 308 aided with the work, and did a "superb job."

Appomattox again reached its quota, which is set at 100 units of blood.
